AWARDS

- Selected as a Georgia "Super Lawyer"® for 22 consecutive years since 2004.
- Recognized by U.S. News & World Report/Best Lawyers® for representing both management and individuals in employment matters, 2016-2024 (and other years), including "Lawyer of the Year" in 2016 in Atlanta for representing individuals. The "Lawyer of the Year" award recognizes the highest-scoring lawyer in the Atlanta legal community in that practice area.
- Included on other occasions in Georgia Trend's "Legal Elite"® and Chambers USA®.
- AV-rated by Martindale-Hubbell® since 2000.

REPRESENTATIVE ENGAGEMENTS

- Representing a dermatopathologist who sought freedom from a contract with a large corporation so that he could start his own dermatopathology laboratory. He won the right to compete and recovered the majority of his fees and costs after four years of litigation spanning Georgia and Florida.
- Winning a federal jury verdict in Atlanta after a three-week trial on behalf of a well-known Atlanta media company in an age and national origin discrimination case filed by a former television anchor.
- Obtaining an agreed dismissal for no dollars in an action against clients who were alleged to have misappropriated confidential information in starting a competing restaurant business.
- Convincing a federal jury in Tennessee that a dwarf who worked as a taxi starter at an airport was not a victim of employment discrimination or unlawful harassment under the ADA.
- Negotiating a consent judgment against a former employee of a service industry client for taking and using confidential information to start a competing business, based largely on computer forensics.
- Both winning injunctions on behalf of employers and defeating such actions on behalf of their former employees in restrictive covenant, trade secret and unfair competition cases.
- Prevailing before a federal jury in Maryland for an auto dealer on sex discrimination claims by a F&I manager who was alleged to be having an affair with her boss.
